

Will of R. W. Crowson,

I, R. W. Crowson make this my last Will and Testament. I desire at my death to be buried ^{cheaply} just as if I was going to church. I desire that should survive me, I leave her my home farm what she wants of it; any stock she wants. I leave her what money I have on hand, if any and all the money that is owing to me and what I may pay Caroline Gitt. two hundred and fifty dollars out of that and what she pleases with the rest.

I give to Mary Wear and her children the Farm on Walnut Creek that I bought of Mullendore and I also give to them my farm in Blount County across the river from R. Burns known as the McClanahan farm

I give Aaron Crowson all the land ^{what} I bought from Andrew Coatter and what I bought from Thomas Walker, and I give to him part of a seventy five acre entry back of this little field here at Boyle's what lies above the road at Aaron McGill's that to Amerino and with it the Mc Bryen place the five hundred

West Crowson divide or you can ^(have) yours as each sone wants. And if you can not-agree, let two of the divide it and I give Aaron Crows the bottom field to begin at the corner of Emert's fence and run straight down to the mouth of a little ditch at the lower end of the field so as to hit the fork of the branch.

I give Sarah Elizabeth
Crowson my Shrader's farm I give her a piece where W now lives beginning at the upper gate post at the race; the fence straight through the middle of the barn to the back of the lot - then square to the race; then straight to the cherry trees at the fence; thence with the fence to the fork of the island branch; then straight across the field to the cross + fence then up to the road and with the road to the beginning; I give her that field above Boyles, and a part of a seventy five acre entry at the back of the field up to the road at Aaron McGills. I also give a deed of trust on that field to John Yett that John R. Inel let me have. If John pays the money it is his and if not the land is hers.
John Yett may have someone joining him.

I give a piece of land to the right hand of the road next Jane Hatcher I give her what ever she needs for fire wood and keep up her fencing on either side, Joseph's or Aaron's land they have most all the timber. Sarah can take the use of household furniture as much as Caroline got - and the stove then divide between her & Mary Near. and Caroline. Sarah is to take choice of my horses and what cattle she wants. If rest - builds here in the lot - Sarah is to (have) my house while single and the garden and the apple lot - to the right of the house. I paid about two thousand dollars towards settling land for Caroline, I leave her two hundred & fifty dollars more at my death if not paid before.

I give the lower part of my farm to Joseph Crowson the creek is the line between him and Aaron Crowson down to the branch, thence up the branch to the ford below the branch - to the ford above the gap of the mountains thence with the Walden's Creek road as far as my land goes. This is Joseph's. Now if Joseph should never have any heirs this land at his death and Laura's shall go back to my heirs. But if he should have any it belongs to them and if not - my heirs get it - West's heirs shall have down to the mouth of the branch, then the way the old fence runs straight to the mountain, the rest of the farm known as the Powell farm divide between Aaron Brownson's heirs & Caroline Yetts children and Sarah Brownson.

R. W. Brownson Jun. is to have the rest of this field here at the house then commence at the white oak at the ford of the branch, thence with Joseph's as far as my land goes then turn South down by Myers all on the East side that I have not given away Aaron Brownson & Joseph Brownson - is to have the privilege to do any sawing they want for themselves at the saw mill, they helped to make it.

Now I appoint my son Aaron Brownson as my Administrator to wind up my business. There won't be much trouble if you all do right. Lovingly - Aunt

Will of R.W. Crowson,
 need not bind him to bond, and security as I am willing to risk him doing right. This March 15 day 1887.
